WEDDING.

Miss Elizabeth Lewis Worthington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Yellott Worthington, was married last night to Mr. Angus MacDonald Crawford, of San Antonio, Tex., son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Angus Crawford, of the Theological Seminary, near Alexandria. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock in Christ Church, Georgetown, by Rev. Dr. Crawford, father of the bridegroom, and Rev. J. H. W. Blake, rector of Christ Church. The bride was attended by Miss Alice Laurie Crawford, sister of the bridegroom, maid of honor; Miss Gertrude Campbell Fry and Miss Nannie S. McOlelland, of Washington; Miss Frances Peyton Page, of Winchester, and Miss Beatrice Crawford, of Seminary Hill, bridesmaids. Mr. Charles B. Crawford, of Seminary Hill, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Oscar Dr. Wolfe Randolph, of Chicago; Mr. Thomas K. Nelson, of Maryland; Mr. Charles K. Hood, Mr. Philip Dawson, and Mr. Daniel B. Conrad, all of Virginia, and Mr. George Y. Worthington, Jr., of Baltimore, and Mr. William C. Worthington, brothers of the bride. The church and house both had decorations of daisies mingled with tall palms and ferns. The bride entered the church with her father who gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of white duchesse satin, with panels of pearl and chemise embroidery, and a long court train. Her tall veil was held with orange blossoms and she carried a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore white embroidered tulle and carried daisies, and the bridesmaids wore gowns of white batiste and carried bunches of American beauties. After the ceremony a buffet supper was served for the bride party and the families of the bride and bridegroom at the home of the bride's parents, in Georgetown. The dining room was decorated with bride roses and smilax, and the parlors and halls with palms and crimson ranunculus. After the supper the bride and bridegroom left for a short wedding trip in the north, and will return to Washington before starting on their journey to their future home, San Antonio, Tex.

ARRESTED ON A STEAMER.

When the steamer Southland, of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, reached this city at 7:15 o'clock last evening Captain Posey requested the police to remove a woman from the steamer, who, he charged, was drunk and disorderly. Officer Young went aboard when a woman dressed in blue, apparently about 30 years old, was pointed out to him as the undesirable passenger. The officer, after picking up a number of bundles belonging to the woman, took her in custody. She was disorderly and attracted considerable attention on the steamer as well as on the wharf and streets as she accompanied Officer Young to the station house. She gave her name to Chief Goods as Florida Bobbitt, and said she was a married woman; that she had been living in Baltimore, but that her husband was a resident of Oriskany, M. I. The prisoner railed at the officer for arresting her and at times wept. She was placed in an upper room by Officer Roberts where she passed the night. The accused was brought before the Police Court this morning, when she acknowledged she had been drinking, and stated that she was on her way to Norfolk to visit her father, who was critically ill. Justice Caton dismissed the prisoner. As she left the dock she placed a one-dollar bill before the justice, and refused to take it when directed to do so. An officer brought her back and compelled her to take the bill, the justice in the meantime telling her no fine had been imposed.

CASES DISMISSED.

Some excitement was caused on West street, near King, about 6 o'clock yesterday evening by a difficulty between a young man and an employee of the street department during which the latter was struck and a pistol taken from him by his antagonist. The parties were cited to appear in the Police Court this morning, one having been charged with carrying a pistol and the other with assault and robbery. The city employee first faced the court to answer the charge of carrying concealed weapons. He was dismissed with an admonition and the pistol confiscated. The man who had been charged with assault then faced the bar. He stated that the city employee had been following and annoying him, alleging that the police were after him. He met the man in front of a saloon and asked him what he meant by such a procedure, when the city employee answered with an insulting remark. The young man then struck him, and, he alleges, as his antagonist fell the latter attempted to draw his pistol, when he disarmed him and turned the weapon over to the authorities. The accused was dismissed.

HOSPITABLY ENTERTAINED.

Rev. John Hallowell Dickinson, rector of the church of the Holy Comforter of Richmond, and Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of this state, paid a visit to this city last night and was handsomely entertained at the home of Deputy Grand Chancellor E. R. Boyer, on North S. Asaph street. Mr. Dickinson's mission is to enlarge the jurisdiction and increase the membership in this immediate district. A number of members of the local lodges were present.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Nannie Lealand, of Welcome, Charles county, Md., who has been visiting at the residence of Mr. John Naylor, on Duke street, has returned to her home much pleased with her stay in this city.

Invitations to the marriage to Lieut. Eugene Bonfils Walker, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., and Miss Willis Williams on June 30th, have been issued. Miss Williams and Lieut. Walker met at the Presidio where she was living with her brother, Lieut. John Stuart Williams, of the Coast Artillery. Miss Williams is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Brown and Mr. J. D. McGuire, of Washington, and great-granddaughter of General William Madison, a brother of President Madison, and has a great number of relatives and friends throughout Virginia where she is very popular.

Lieut. Walker, from Denver, Colorado, graduated in the class of 1907 at the Naval Academy, entered the navy and made the trip with the fleet around South America when he was transferred, by request, to the Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., and stationed at the Presidio, San Francisco.

After spending several weeks with her friend, Miss Bryan Stuart, in Clarke county, Miss Bessie Russell has returned to her home in this city.

Miss Alice Chinn is visiting her aunt, Mrs. F. W. Richardson, at Fairfax.

Among this year's graduates in the law school of the University of Virginia is Albert Stuart Billing, of Charlottesville, a grandnephew of Mr. Albert Stuart, of this city.

The family of Mr. J. C. Smoot have gone to North Wilkesboro, N. C., to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Byron Jones, of Washington, announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Madeline, to Mr. Leslie Boyd Farmer on Wednesday, June 9th, by Rev. John G. Murray in the church of St. Michael and All Angels, Baltimore. They were accompanied by Miss Myrtle Jones, sister of the bride, and Mr. John D. Robertson. Mr. Farmer is the son of the late L. P. Farmer, commissioner of the Grand Trunk Line Railway, New York city, and was a member of the Yale class of 1907. Mr. and Mrs. Farmer will reside in Washington.

Dr. S. B. Moore has returned from Atlantic City, where he went to attend the American Congress of Physicians.

Mr. Nevell S. Greenaway and Miss Coralie Greenaway, of Alexandria, Va., are spending a week at the Gardner cottage at Virginia Beach. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Richards, of Alexandria, are staying at the Pamill cottage at Virginia Beach. Norfolk Lodge.

Miss Marguerite Hellin, of Leesburg, is visiting friends in this city.

ALEXANDRIA GUIDES.

It has often been suggested that visitors to Alexandria had better take cum grano salis much of what is told them by irresponsible and ignorant boys who offer their services as guides. A lady from Georgia visited the city a few weeks ago and upon leaving an electric train she was immediately besieged by a number of white and colored boys who insisted on acting as guides for her. They followed the lady to several points of interest, finally bringing up at the monument at the intersection of Prince and Washington streets. The visitor asked the boys who the lone Confederate represented. One of the colored youths, after scratching his head, replied that it was either Lincoln or Grant, he was not sure which.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

A man charged with carrying a pistol, was confiscated. The weapon, however, was confiscated.

A young man, charged with assault, was dismissed.

Florida Bobbitt, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was dismissed.

Isaac Edney, colored, charged with escaping from the chain gang, had 60 days added to his term.

JUNIOR ORDER OF MECHANICS.

James W. Jackson Council, No. 55-Jr. O. U. A. M., held an interesting meeting last night at which one candidate was initiated, one application for membership received and considerable routine business transacted. Several visitors from Washington were present who gave descriptions of the work being accomplished by the order in that city. Quite an interest is being taken in the approaching election of officers, nominations for which were opened at this meeting.

PIANO RECITAL.

A piano recital was given yesterday evening by the pupils of Mrs. Oscar F. Carter's class at her home on South Washington street. During the evening an interesting programme was given in which the students participated and showed wonderful skill and careful training. A large gathering of parents and friends of the pupils attended the recital.

CLOSING EXERCISES.

St. Mary's Academy, conducted by the Sisters of the Holy Cross, is holding its annual closing exercises at the Opera House this afternoon. Diplomas of graduation will be conferred upon the following: Misses Maryset Daly, of Phoebus, and Ida Crilly, Helen Corbett, Marie Green, and Lola Ashton, of this city.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The public schools of the city will close next week, commencing on Monday the 14th with Washington school, to be followed on Tuesday by Lee school, on Wednesday by Snowden school and on Thursday by Hallowell school. The exercises will be held at the respective buildings commencing each morning at 9 o'clock.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Surprise Theatre was crowded last night and those who took advantage of the opportunity to visit this popular theatre were well repaid. The vaudeville was the best seen here in a long time, every feature advertised excelling the fondest expectation. Tonight the show will be repeated, and if the amusement lover wants to get real fun out of life he should go to the Surprise.

The pictures at the Alexandria Amusement Co. last night, as usual, were first class, and were witnessed by an immense crowd. The anxiety and excitement upon the drawing of the prizes was intense and combined with excellent pictures the audience was delighted beyond degree. A change of pictures tonight and another prize. One picture at this house tonight entitled "The Prisoner's Escape" will be worth the price of admission.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Lucy Elzie, colored, was found dead by her son at her home, on Fairfax street, near Princess, early this morning.

More rain fell this morning. The mercury this morning registered 78° but the humidity made the heat appear much more intense.

It is only natural for people who buy to seek the place where they get the best bargains for the least money. This being true the buyer can not fail to visit Rosenfeld's store tomorrow and get just what is wanted or needed at a surprising low price.

A freight train on the Danville division of the Southern Railway was derailed and wrecked yesterday. So far as can be learned no one was injured.

A young lady came to us recently and told us the story of her life. We were shocked beyond mere words to express our sympathy. Our friend Mr. Kintner was there also with tears streaming down his handsome face; he gazed into her lovely upland eyes and the sympathetic voice of one who has seen the sunny side of life and knew the true value of temptation: "Miss poor girl," he said, "for fifth commandment tells us not to experience in der best Sunday school teacher. ## Married Girl He Shot.

Paris, June 11.—Charles Rouchon, a decorator, was today acquitted of the charge of attempting to kill Miss Viola, after it had been shown to the court that he married the girl yesterday. Last August, while in a fit of lover's madness, Rouchon shot the girl, who was his fiancée, at the Metropolitan Railway station. The bullet pierced the girl's body, and for months her life was despaired of. Rouchon was arrested. He went almost insane from grief over his act. Miss Viola finally recovered and the two were brought to court and were married yesterday. When the court heard of the happy termination of their love affair, he ordered the young husband acquitted.
